

Information on Applying for Membership at the Faculty Research Centre LiDS

Who is eligible for membership? (§ 2 of the LiDS Bylaws):

Full Membership:

Individuals who hold a (junior) professorship, postdoctoral position, doctoral position, or a secondary affiliation in the Faculty of Education at the University of Hamburg, or who are pursuing their doctorate on the basis of a doctoral scholarship.

Associate Membership:

Individuals who hold a (junior) professorship, postdoctoral position, or doctoral position at the University of Hamburg outside the Faculty of Education, at another higher-education institution, or at a non-university research institution, as well as professors emeriti.

Requirements:

- a) Support for the application from two full members, at least one of whom must be a university lecturer; and
- b) Third-party funded projects of the applicant relevant to the LiDS Centre's research themes, or participation in temporary LiDS working groups (§ 1 (3 e)) with the intention of applying for such third-party funding.

Decision on Admission:

Decided by the executive board upon application. For applications by doctoral candidates or professors emeriti, the executive board may waive requirement specified in paragraph 3(b).

How to Apply:

Submit the following documents to lids.ew@uni-hamburg.de

- A cover letter (max. 2 A4 pages) explaining why you wish to become a member and what contributions you will make to the Centre's development (including notes on relevant preliminary work).
- A brief CV with a link to your personal profile page.

If you have any questions about the Research Centre or the application process, please feel free to contact our team at any time. You can find more information about the Centre here.

The LiDS Research Centre looks forward to receiving your membership applications!
